In Re: Pa Sup 2697 2699 and 1875 EDA 2009

Dear Court Recorder,

In accordance with Pennsylvania Superior Court Internal Operating Procedures 65 Pa. Code Section 65.1, kindly retain record of Appellant's Letter of February 23, 2010 which documents unfair advantage taken by Appellee DHS who (1) filed Brief on February 13, 2010 and was given credit for filing on February 9, 2010; and (2) Who falsely represented Certified Service and indicated erroneous service parties on Appellee's 02/9/10 Certificate of Service and (3) did not postmark Appellant's service copy until 02/21/10 received yesterday and (4) Appellant's 2/19/10 timely filed application for extension of time to file Answers and Responses to DHS Appellee's late filed deliberately obstructive late service of Brief; and (5) Appellant notes that as of the date of this letter, Pa Superior Court has not approved or disapproved Appellant's timely duly served Application Extension to file Answers and Responses to DHS Appellee's deliberate obstructive service of February 9, 2010 Brief.

Kindly note, Appellant's reiteration of necessity for extension of time to file Answers and Responses to DHS Appellee's brief because the fourteen days allowed for answering has been obstructively consumed by DHS Appellee's deliberate delay and falsification of certificate of service.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
DEBORAH M. YOUNG
